

BUSINESS REMOVAL FROM LIMESTONE TO MARKET ST.

JOHN WREN'S NEW YORK DRY GOODS STORE.

Owing to the fact that I will occupy the handsome Double Store Rooms in the new King Block, 27 and 29 S. Market St., about October 1, 1887, I do not need to explain to the intelligent public why I am now offering my entire stock of goods at COST and LESS THAN COST. for it is apparent to all that besides my intent to open up my new store with an absolutely new stock of goods, I can well afford to sacrifice the greater part of my present stock at cost and less rather than incur the trouble and expense of moving and replacing it in my Market Street Store. As a positive proof of these common sense business reasons, I offer the following goods at almost your own prices to close. Remember, these goods must be closed out, and at prices such as the oldest inhabitant of Springfield never before heard of.

FOURTH at Washington C. H.

There will be a regular old time Fourth of July at Washington C. H. this year. The Fayette County Fair company have made very elaborate and extensive arrangements, involving a large expenditure of money, and intend to inaugurate an annual meeting on that day, upon their extensive and beautiful grounds, devoted to athletic sports, foot and horse racing—$1,000 in premiums, being distributed. They have also caused to be engraved, seven beautiful and expensive gold badges to be given to amateur wheelmen in contests of speed.

The track is perhaps the best half-mile track in the state, and the arrangement of their grounds cannot be excelled for beauty and convenience. Excursion rates will be charged on all railroads running into Washington, and passengers can be unloaded at the gates of the grounds. Wheelmen from all the principal cities of Ohio and adjoining states will compete for the badges, and the entries in the horse races guarantee fast racing. Already there is an indication that fifty bicycles will come up from Cincinnati alone.

See his big "ad" in today's Republic and call and get the big bargains he has awaiting you.

SOLID COMFORT!

If you think this is going to be an advertisement for The London Clothing Co., you make a serious mistake, because it's too hot to write anything that reads like advertising, and far more agreeable to say nothing about merchandise at all. Except, though we might get in a word or two about our Ten Dollar Suits in light weight fabrics, made particularly for late summer wear—or else remark that we considered our own Seersucker Coats and Vests much the prettiest and cheapest of any in the market, and at less money, too. But far pleasanter than that sort of thing, is to put to one side the cares of trade, and, like the happy father in our picture, think only of home and family, until tomorrow at 7:30 a. m., when we shall be ready to show a large and varied stock of Men's and Boys' Clothing—but there, we'd forgotten—this is to be no advertisement.

A WORD OF WARNING.

Now laughs the sun; the south wind blows; Three merry maids hang out the clothes; Miranda, Maud, and Madeline; They hear the village clock ring nine. Quoth Maud: "Why are we done so soon?" The washing used to last till noon? Two rosy mouths in chorus ope, "Oh! now we use the IVORY SOAP."

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory," they ARE NOT. But like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.
